

Credit Risk Analytics — Entity Relationship Diagram

Updated relational model including application, underwriting, originated-loan, monthly-performance and outcome tables. PK = primary key; FK = foreign key; PK* indicates the payment number participates in the composite key loan_id + payment_number.

Temporal rule: application-time predictors must use information available no later than the corresponding application date. The new-loan performance tables contain post-origination information.